She is so pretty without makeup

your so pretty with and without makeup

You are so beautiful! You don't even need the makeup!

U look pretty and simple without makeup 🐱🐱🐱

soooo fucking cute without make-up!!!

You're so freaking beautiful!!!!

she's beautiful with or without makeup love this inspiring vid. she is so pretty with and without makeup

i like her with and without make up she's beautiful either way!

Beautiful inside and out! Wish I had the talent

You are so beautiful with and without makeup!

I think that she still looks beautiful with or without make up

she looks gorgeous either way tbh

you are gorgeous! both with and without makeup

Super Gorgeous!

You are gorgeous, naked face or made up face. With that being said, isn't this foundation to light?

Omg you are so beautiful! Both with and without makeup, true goals

You have a beautiful aura.. Don't change anything you're amazing.

You are beautiful inside and out!! Fuck the haters! Success is the best revenge!!!

You're beautiful either way.

whatever you have been using on your skin is working!!!, you skin looks so fresh and radiant! you are beautiful either way!

Both sides of your face are beautiful!

You are beautiful with or without.

She is absolutely gorgeous with and without makeup 💕💕

Gorgeous before and after!!!!

You're just such a beautiful person all around

Gorgeous as always! with or without makeup you are beautiful inside and out !

She is so beautiful with and with-out makeup ! ❤️👍❤️👍❤️👍

The makeup does make you look like a different person, but I think you're very pretty with & without makeup.

you completely transformed yourself goals 😍😍

You look better without makeup

You pretty much look the same just a little discolouration- your features are beautiful girls only wear makeup to be fake and cover things up and try to make themselves look better than they really do..the whole thing is scam to lure you into their web there is nothing fake about wearing make up, i love to experince new products on my skin, there are such new foundations now, with amazing technology,

We females are NOT solely programmed to impress a guy with our looks. I think makeup is about creativity and art, it's about how it makes YOU feel after a few hours it's so creesy (?) idk how to explain but please help me

My skin creases after a couple hours, it's weird. Like a mask.

It looks like she has a mask on half her face wow! That's some awesome mask you painted there! But It shocks me too...

simultaneously shaming a girl for wearing makeup and telling her she looks shit without it... what kind of stupidly impossible standard is that.

But this look is a little tiny bit scary but,Still beautiful naturally!!!

you're a real person and you teach us how to put on makeup on and wigs from the beginning to end, and I just wanted to let you know I appreciate you taking the time and keeping 100

you make it look so easy I wish I could look that amazing

it makes me feel connected lol like I'm getting to know the person behind the brush

I respect you not filtering the video. we get to see you for real 😍😍😍

You have the most beautiful natural lip color I have ever seeeeeen!

i love this it's so realistic 😞 most makeup tutorials are impossible to do very pretty and natural looking!!

what no dark hair?

need a closer view I can't see it..:(

she needs to be closer to camera

Quit using fingers to the eye

I lost interest

exit utube

i love this but u talk alot

how the fuck does this even have 32million views how stupid

I wish she was facing us the whole time.

Waste of time. Can't see what she is doing. How can anyone learn how to apply the makeup? WHY didn't you realize this????

She needs some dental help before she goes before the camera..

I was very unhappy with your video

she looks better in the left picture.

Lavender hair is SO aging. Make up cannot overcome the hair color.

I noticed there didn't seem to be any moisturizer or cheek color. Did I miss something?

looks more like she has a black eye

Who in their right mind would spend all this time putting all this stuff on their eyes/face?

eyebrows still look too thin

she should get a face peel for the dark spots, but she's really pretty .

no offense hun but theres a difference between caking it on and highlighting your features despite all the dislikes i loved the way she looked it never hurts to look beautiful right? no matter what it takes just blend the negativity away

we should be 100% comfortable with or without makeup no matter what people think because we are always being judged regardless!

5.

the reason we buy our makeup is to perfect our imperfections so I never get shade throwers

I kept seeing your picture floating around social media with not so nice comments I've waited for you to address it but you never have but what I learned is to ignore the haters and keep doing you you're beautiful inside and out

Not every woman can express an inkling of their inner personal flaws

my BF always asks why do you put on so much make-up? my response "because I am a girl"

Is she a real female ?

Yes editing is all part of the game but you actually change the shape of your whole face. Contour can slim ones face but not to that degree.

painting your face until unrecognizable abomination? Imo women look better without makeup.

It just so happens that often what pleases me is pleasing a man.

should I use make up? I really fear about being judged but I really want to try it :/ should I?

you are so cute, why did you put this cuantity of makeup??? I think you just need a bit of corrector

Besides, I really don't understand why using makeup to make yourself look slimmer??? If you're not feeling comfortable about your weight then go to the fucking gym ans loose some... Hiding double chin under makeup is like the most fucking stupid solution I've ever heard of

If I can wear clothes to cover my body, why can't I wear makeup to cover my face?

I hate my face. Do you have any tips on how not to hate myself?! X

I hate it when people say you don't need to wear makeup you look fine without it or its not you. the only reason I where makeup is because I'm insecure and I makes me more confident

i dare you walk outside like that and catch peoples reactions! lolololol, im a guy (straight) and this video was interesting. i should show my woman this vid.

show me some ass and breast nikkie ...i love thick girls..do you want kids?

wait... her face is skinny looking, but what about the body? no offense just asking very brave to show your face pre-makeup. gotta be a product out there to clear up your skin so makeup looks better.

I know you have had problems in the past but your skin looks amazing

Unfortunately these days it appears that I have been doing it for others due to insecurities I have with my skin

I think You are naturally beautiful because you embrace your flaws!

It's showing body/ face confidence by pointing out your flaws and the way you use make up as a tool to emphasise the good bits and change the 'bad' bits to make yourself look and feel better.

Thats nature. No rationalization about that.

dude, no matter how much make up I put on. I'm ugly. so bless you for teaching me your ways but lol there's no hope for me.

I am very secure of my outside, but that don't make me secure of my inside. I very much like what I see in the mirror, but if I think of my personality I hate myself. Is that strange? If so, the world is weird. :/
